Sales Assistant

London, UK

Nov 2024 – Present

- Work 8 hours per week alongside First-Class studies, supporting customer-facing and stock operations for a store generating ~£5k daily revenue and £10-11k during seasonal sales; developed commercial judgement, reliability and clear communication under pressure.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Applied Data Science Research Project

Royal Holloway Coursework

Egham, UK

- Built a 31-country cross-sectional study from four World Bank indicators in Python, creating a reproducible data workflow and estimating four OLS regression specifications with HC1-robust standard errors.
- Found an initially significant Rule of Law relationship ($p=0.002$) became insignificant after GDP and education controls ($p=0.666$), reinforcing the importance of challenging assumptions and revising conclusions when the evidence changes.
