

Fortuna on Linked In

Below you will find a few best practices for using Linked In as an Expert Coach at Fortuna. Expand your network, stay up to date, and share your knowledge with potential clients.

- Request: Please follow our Linked In Company Page at <https://www.linkedin.com/company/fortuna-admissions/>
- Request: please ensure that you have Fortuna Admissions listed as one of your current professional positions, and that you LINK it to our company page. When you edit Company Name, a drop down will appear and show you Fortuna. Click on that and you will be linked:

The screenshot shows the LinkedIn 'Experience' section. At the top right, there are buttons for '+ Add position' and a vertical double-headed arrow. Below the 'Experience' header, the 'Company Name' field is active, showing a dropdown menu. The dropdown contains the following results:

- Fortuna Admissions
Education Management; 11-50 employees;
- Fortuna Advisors LLC
Management Consulting; 1-10 employees; HQ:New York,NY
- Fortuna Advisory Group
Accounting; 11-50 employees;
- Fortuna International Advisors
Investment Management; 1-10 employees;
- Fortuna Rodrigues Advocacia
HQ:Brazil
- Add fortuna ad as a new company

- Request: Please include a description for your work with Fortuna, not just your title. It helps clients to see an explanation of your role and for the company. Here is what we recommend:

Expert Coach

Fortuna Admissions

- As an Expert Coach at Fortuna Admissions, I advise candidates from around the world who are applying to top MBA programs, working with an unparalleled team of seasoned business school professionals from schools including Wharton, Harvard Business School, Stanford GSB, Chicago Booth, Columbia, Cornell, Stern, Duke, INSEAD, Kellogg, IE and London Business School

- Fortuna Admissions is an elite team of former senior MBA admissions staff and industry experts offering tailored advice and coaching to business school applicants. We coach candidates through the highly competitive admissions process for top MBA programs, from identifying target schools, developing an application strategy that will effectively showcase their candidacy, through an iterative process of developing the application and coaching for interviews. The Fortuna team is regularly quoted on business school topics by a range of media including Forbes, the Financial Times, the Economist, the Wall Street Journal, Business Week and US News.
- Recommendation: If inclined, please update your Linked In profile photo with your new Fortuna headshot.
- Recommendation: You should invite your Fortuna clients to become personal Linked In connections as soon as you make contact with them. As well, they can follow the Fortuna page, but your personal connection will matter more.
- Recommendation: Follow other relevant accounts such as specific school pages, and connect with any of your past admissions colleagues, as this shows clients you have a real connection to the institutions.
- Recommendation: Please share our content. When you see a post on our Company Page, please share it with your network. Also, we will be highlighting “Social Share” content from time to time in our weekly news roundups. These are pieces that would be beneficial to post and share on your personal or professional social media accounts, specifically Linked In.

If you have questions about using Linked In or updating your profile, feel free to contact Hayley Mitchell at Hayley.mitchell@fortunaadmissions.com